European Public Sector Award

Institut Européen
d'Administration Publique
European Institute of Public Administration

The Spirit of EPSA...

- brings together the best, most innovative and efficient performers from the European public sector
- is open to all fields of public administration
- deals with themes that are currently highly topical in the overall European context

EPSA's objective  to make these valuable experiences transparent, known to the public and usable.

The Aims of the EPSA

The vision is to create an arena in which Europe's public sector institutions can excel and become an exemplar for the rest of the world. Against this backdrop, the EPSA aims to achieve the following goals:

- to contribute to the progress and implementation of the Lisbon Strategy for Growth and Jobs
- to create a common European administrative space
- to devise new administrative problem-solving paradigms
- to foster constructive competition amongst public sector organisations and reward excellence
- to learn from the European leading edge

Good reasons to take part in EPSA 2009

Show appreciation to your employees and bring the work of their projects to the attention of a wider European audience

We focus on highly topical thematic fields

You can be rewarded irrespective of size or type of your administration or the cultural sphere in which you operate

We work with an independent, impartial and acknowledged international pool of experts

Promote your public image by publishing your results in the EPSA publications, on the www.epsa2009.eu website and via other dissemination channels

Receive valuable input for your work whilst also indicating potential for improvement and further development

The online application process is simple and straightforward and participation in the competition is free of charge

The 4 EPSA 2009 Themes

Performance Improvement in Public Sector Delivery

- ✓ increased efficiency and effectiveness of public service provision;
- ✓ increased productivity by adapting processes of service production and delivery of shared service centres;
- ✓ reducing bureaucracy and cutting red tape for the benefits of their clients, citizens and businesses;
- ✓ high quality control of public service delivery (related to outcome);
- ✓ customer satisfaction measurement and management;
- ✓ impact assessment of service delivery.

Mr. Tore Chr. Malterud (NO)
EIPA Maastricht

New Forms of Partnership Working

- ✓ Public-public partnerships, public-private partnerships and public-third sector relationships;
- ✓ Collaboration between administrations (including inter- or cross-administrative), shared and collaborative responsibility;
- ✓ Cross-territorial collaboration (including interregional, cross-border and/or trans-national cooperation);
- ✓ Innovative cooperation or cluster-related processes.

Mr. Michael Burnett (UK),
EIPA Maastricht, in co-leadership with Mr. Alexander Heichlinger (AT),
EIPA Antenna Barcelona

The 4 EPISA 2009 Themes

Citizen Involvement

- ✓ administrations moving from representative to more participatory democracy, whilst addressing issues of accountability and representativeness;
- ✓ joint approaches to planning;
- ✓ empowering local communities to participate in policy making;
- ✓ addressing power imbalances between multiple stakeholders;
- ✓ amending legislative provisions to facilitate citizen involvement;
- ✓ supporting citizen involvement through new technologies;
- ✓ providing increased information and public scrutiny/ accountability opportunities.

Mr Tony Bass (IE),
EIPA Maastricht

Leadership & Management for Change

- ✓ Increased motivation for (permanent) change by good leadership;
- ✓ Inclusion of diversity, ethics and the European/international dimension in the top management;
- ✓ The impact on leadership performance of working as a complementary team;
- ✓ The proven advantage of top management creating a strategy, shared vision and shared values by a common process in the organisation;
- ✓ Employees' satisfaction with leadership and change measured, and results successfully implemented.

Ms Herma Kuperus (NL),
EIPA Maastricht

Evaluation phase (3 stages)

What are the eligibility criteria?

- Completed application form
- The candidates (lead applicant) must be public sector institutions or authorities (local, regional, central or pan-European) (other applicants can be private, semi-public, NGO or academic)
- European geographical origin of the application
- Compliance with the themes (thematic areas) of the EPISA 2009 competition
- The application/project/case has been in operation long enough so to have tangible and measurable results

It is encouraged to submit projects showing consideration of:

- Gender mainstreaming
- Technology (ICT-enabled solutions)
- Environmental sustainability aspects

What are the general evaluation criteria?

- Innovation: novelty of the solution; degree to which the case shows a leap of creativity in public administration progress; something different that goes beyond what currently exists;
- Public concern: degree of addressing a pressing need or important problem of public concern; the project topic is high on the agenda in European public organisations;
- Significance/Relevance: the project deals with a sufficient number of public sector bodies; a critical mass of actors is tackling the issue;
- Impact: the realisation of planned objectives and activities; the provision and illustration of proven evidence and benefits; results demonstration;
- Learning capacity and transferability: with lessons of potential value to other entities; the project provides the potential for successful replication by other governments; it stimulates improvement in its application and provides mutual learning perspectives.
